Of the Free Trade Democrats whose Mouth Piece President Cleveland has become,
Expressed in no Uncertain Words,

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 8.—In the House of Delegates to-day a joint resolution was

Virginia Senators and requesting her Representatives in Congress to use their best efforts to secure the repeal at an early day of the entire internal revenue system of possible the repeal of so much of the system as impose a tax on tobacco in any of its forms and upon spirits distilled from fruits.

Dana Opposes the Recommendations.
NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Sun to-day publishes several editorials opposing the recommendations of the President's message. It says there is a very strong pro-essential to Democratic success next year. The President's message, it says, would lead to the impression that he favors Mr. Blaine's nomination by the Republicans. The internal revenue taxes should be reduced instead of the tariff.

California Wool Growers

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—A number of representatives of the wool industry at a meeting to-day adopted resolutions to the effect that any reduction of the tariff on wool would seriously cripple the industry and greatly decrease its production in this State. An appeal is to be made to Congress.

Texas Wool Growers Heard From.
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Dec. 8.—President Cleveland's message has caused widespread dissatisfaction in Texas. The wool producers of Western Texas growing, and those who have their money invested in it think the President has delivered them into the hands of the Philistines, and will take steps to form a national organization to combat the removal of duty on wool.

Manufacturers Show Where They Stand.
NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Herald to-day prints interviews with manufacturers of various commodities in all parts of the country giving their views on the President's message. The opinions are almost universally opposed to the carrying out of the President's recommendations.

Approved by a St. Louis Firm.

St. Louis, Dec. 8.—The Collier White Lead Company, of this city, have telegraphed President Cleveland approving his message, and asking that the tariff on white and gray lead be reduced fifty per cent.

Three Brothers in Human Form Dealt With by the Unwritten Law

ONDIO, TENN., Dec. 8.—Judge Lynch is a favorite tribunal in Tennessee and one that settles most disputes that the unwritten law applies to. The neighborhood of Rives, a small town in Tennessee, was yesterday the scene of a triple lynching. Adam Charles, Anay Miller and William Smith were the victims. The cause was an assault on a 10 year old child, the daughter of Mr. M. Myers.

The story of the crime was as follows: Minnie, the little daughter of Mr. Myers, attends school about a mile from home, and is generally accompanied by one of her brothers. On Wednesday morning she started to school alone. When about half a mile from home, in a lonely wood, she was accosted by the negro Oberlee, duced the child to enter the woods with him, and she was there assaulted by the negro Miller, Charles and Smith were present, and the crime committed.

Minnie reached home near dead then alive, and told her story. An alarm was sent out and in less than an hour a hundred men were on the trail of the thieves. Among them were a number of negroes.

Miller was captured early in the afternoon in a negro cabin. As soon as he was captured he revealed the hiding place of his companions, who were found in the woods near by. Miller accused his companions of the crime and protested his innocence.

No accusations were made by the pursuing men, who arrested in the

The negroes in the community were thoroughly in sympathy with the actions of the avenging party and condemned the assault in unmeasured terms. Miller was a negro of considerable respectability in his neighborhood, having a wife and son.

eral children. His companions were considered worthless. The child at last accounts was in a very precarious condition.

The American Base Ball Association.
CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 8.—The directors of the American Base Ball Association met this morning. President Wheeler Wyckoff submitted his annual reports, which takes the usual course. The pennant was formally awarded to the St. Louis club and the standing of the clubs

President Wyckoff in his report recommended that numpies be assigned when the schedule of games is arranged.

The French Cabinet.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—It is reported that the Cabinet will be composed as follows: M. Goblet, President of the Council and Minister of the Interior; M. Ribot, Minister of Justice; M. Florens, Minister of Foreign Affairs; M. Ricard, Minister of Education; M. Loubel, Minister of Agriculture; M. Monard, Minister of Finance.

Public Works. M. Olamagaru, Minister of Finance; M. Siegfried, Minister of Commerce; M. Bourgeois, Minister of Marine; General Fovrier, or General Thomazain, Minister of War.

Harrington Would Not Promise.
DUBLIN, Dec. 8.—The court to-day offered to release Mr. Harrington if he would promise to leave the country for good. Mr. Harrington refused to make any promise.

own recognizance if he would agree not to publish any more reports of meetings of suppressed branches of the League, but Mr. Harrington refused to give such a promise. The court declined to state the case for appeal.

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—The Madgeburger Zeitung correspondent at San Remo, says that during the past few days the physicians attending the Crown Prince have expressed hopes not only that his life will be preserved, but also that he will completely recover from his throat trouble.

They have headache, cuts, and hurts like manner men, and are just as cure to call for Salvation Oil.
